#1 Wine Club Blend Soon to be Released

To help with what we believe will soon be our most popular seller, nearly 100 wine club members gathered at the Triple "R" Ranch and Winery to help create Lone Star Wine Cellars very first "Wine Club Blend". It was a warm, sunny, beautiful day at the Ranch, and everyone had the opportunity to blend till their hearts desire; and what they created is nothing less than a "Masterpiece". Some took the blending very seriously, some took the drinking very seriously, and everyone took the naming very seriously.

Oh yes, as promised, they were allowed to name the new Wine Club Blend right up until they selected a name with the word "spit" in it. Then the brakes came on and Deanna asked for a re-count. Florida, you have nothing on us. With all due respect, it had to be a mistake that OUR wine club had actually voted in the name "Spitting Lama". Although this is a catchy name and would undoubtedly get a great deal of attention, it came as quite a shock that "Spitting Lama" had won the hearts of the majority. Deanna's shaking her head and Ron's thinking "what have we done". Suddenly, with profound wisdom, someone declared, "The ballot box has been stuffed." (we believe this was Susan or Stephanie – it pays to have great employees) "Oops!" "Sorry!" "Do-Over!" "Whew! That was a close one!"

In the end, it was a very close vote, only one vote difference; Brangus Red versus Mountain Lion Meritage. Everyone had to vote again and if you weren't present to vote, you were dragged back from wherever you may had wondered to make your vote count. Even babies were voting. If you were there, you know the name. If you weren't, well I guess you'll just have to wait and see when it's released.

Lone Star Wine Cellars would like to thank the Munson Wine Trail Wineries for their generous contribution to the day's festivities. Our Wine Club members had the added bonus of tasting wines from all over northern Texas. Collin Oaks Winery, Cross Roads Winery, Grayson Hills Winery, Homestead Winery, Landon Winery, and Texoma Winery were all present and offering free tastes of some very special wines. Thank you all. It was a great day and we'll have to do it again soon.
