Wales Manor – This Place Has Turned Into Quite The Destination

The Fall season in the vineyard can be a beautiful time. On February 7th, 2007 John Wales officially opened his doors to LSWC's 3rd Wine Tasting Room. It is located at Wales Manor, where the grapes are grown and the wine is made. He has been working extensively over the last year continually improving his grounds and turning Wales Manor into an excellent outdoor venue to enjoy a lazy weekend afternoon. Today, you can enjoy a picnic, listen to live music and drink some fabulous Texas Wine! Wales Manor is also a perfect setting to host large parties and events. In the past John Wales has hosted parties ranging from 50 to 800 people for clients such as American Airlines and The Collin County Association of Realtors. Contact Lone Star Wine Cellars if you are interested in having Wales Manor host your next event.

For more information on Wales Manor, check out www.walesmanor.com. There you can find directions to the vineyard, the hours of operation, view several pictures of the grounds and read about the wines made by John Wales. We hope to see you soon!

WINE CLUB EVENT - An Evening With The Winemakers - A Huge Success -

Our latest Wine Club Event was a huge success. Over 80 Wine Club Members and their guests enjoyed an evening at Ron and Deanna Ross' home for a blind wine tasting led by a friend and Sommelier, Tim Goerz. Watch for announcements – Tim will be conducting classes beginning in January at the McKinney store. Elizabeth Riley and her husband, Filipe, provided wonderful musical entertainment throughout the evening. Everyone enjoyed wonderful food as well as a variety of some unforgettable vintages from the past from the Ross' private wine cellar. Our guests also had the opportunity to pop the corks for the very first time from Wales Manor's newest release, Reserve Muscat du Bois, a special blend of the Muscat Canelli Grape and the Blanc du Bois Grape (now available in both stores). The fun and the "tasting/sipping/drinking" as well as the fabulous company lasted well into the night. It was a night that will not soon be forgotten by Ron or John. We hope you had as much fun as they did, and can't wait for the next event.
