WINE HOST BIO

Hope Payne, Director of Events, Triple "R" Ranch & Winery Tasting Room

Bob and Hope Payne were high school sweethearts who met and married in Georgia but have called North Texas their home for the past 23 years. Bob and Hope are excited to share North Texas wines from the Triple "R" Ranch & Winery located in Whitesboro, Texas. This 313-acre ranch is home to a small herd of Texas Longhorns, rescued horses, native Whitetail deer and a variety of exotic deer, such as Blackbuck Antelope, as well as a rare White Buffalo.

A passion for travel and time shared with good food and good friends evolved into a love of wine, and in particular, the burgeoning North Texas wine industry. Soon after becoming familiar faces at many North Texas wineries and helping with everything from harvesting to bottling, Hope joined the tasting room staff for Triple "R" Ranch & Winery. Today, Hope is the Director of Events where she hosts tastings and food pairings, in addition to special events. The excitement growing around the North Texas wine industry lead Bob to seek a wine certification alongside Hope to complement his 25-year career in engineering research and development.

Their goal is to share their enthusiasm for wine to make it more approachable for the novice taster, as well as to enhance the tasting experience for long-time wine lovers. They are excited to pair and compare North Texas wines with traditional Old World selections.
